
Welcome to the Day Reporting Center for Moore County!

The Moore County Day Reporting Center was established in 1994 as an alternative to incarceration for offenders sentenced through the criminal justice system. The program increases accountability for offenders on supervised probation while providing services to assist them in becoming productive citizens in the community.