Are there resident issues or topics that need follow-up or review at a later time or during the next visit? The day we visited they were preparing for a weather event the next day. Ms. Savannah was in Contact with the county emergency response team. Our main concern was how dark it was in the home. We had to use the flash light on our phones to read items posted. Menu and boiler inspections were out of date. There appeared to be limited menu items.

Areas of Concern  Are there resident issues or topics that need follow-up or review at a later time or during the next visit?  M/C was flooded in January and in the process of being repaired. This is to be completed by this Friday and residents moved back in. A staff member told us they found the flooding issue, from burst pipe, when she was going into the unit at 3:00 am and a trash can floated out.	Yes/No/NA	Exit Summary  Discuss items from "Areas of Concern" Section as well as any changes observed during the visit  We tried to determine if any staff was in the unit at the time. The answer we were given was more staff, than usual, on premises due to bad weather.

He was emphatic about how well his facility pays workers compared to hospital staff and that a number of staff have worked their for many years (e.g., he and the Director of Nursing). He also wants to bring maintenance and food service in-house (away from corporate) to save money and to use local resources.</li> </ul>	Y	Discuss items from "Areas of Concern" Section as well as any changes observed during the visit

Are there resident issues or topics that need follow-up or review at a later time or during the next visit?  Two medicine carts (100 and 300 hallways) were unlocked. One resident's visitor observed that residents who have regular visitors receive consistently better treatment than those who do not have regular visitors. A resident's son told us that when his mother moved to the facility just over one year before, a shortage of supplies forced him to order essential medical items for his mother using his personal funds. After several months, the supply problem was resolved. Few tables in dining room – where do residents eat?		Discuss items from "Areas of Concern" Section as well as any changes observed during the visit  Administrator assured that she would attend to the unlocked medicine carts. Administrator had not heard about residents w/out visitors being treated differently than those with visitors. Since we did not observe this directly, we simply shared the information. Administrator confirmed the supply shortage story and that it has been resolved. Administrator observed that up to about a dozen residents eat in the dining room during any given meal, and that there are several tables used for their meals.

Areas of Concern	Yes/No/NA	Exit Summary
Are there resident issues or topics that need follow-up or review at a later time or during the next visit? Not at this time. The facility was very clean, and fresh. Residents had nothing but good things to say.		Discuss items from "Areas of Concern" Section as well as any changes observed during the visit
One observation is that the med carts have a white board over them identifying the AM and PM med tech with the cart. The residents can know who is giving them meds and the med techs have a better sense of "ownership" of their carts.		Ms. Purcell is fairly new to the job, but seems to have a very good vision of what direction she wishes to go with the facility.
