1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the policy of the new administration. The President states that he is committed to the principles of liberty and justice for all, and that he will work to maintain the Union.

2. The second part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Treasury, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the financial state of the country at the beginning of the year. The report shows that the government is in a sound financial position, with a surplus of funds. It also discusses the various measures that have been taken to improve the economy and to reduce the national debt.

3. The third part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Interior, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the various activities of the department during the year. The report discusses the progress of the various projects that are being undertaken, such as the construction of the new government buildings, and the development of the public lands. It also discusses the various measures that have been taken to improve the management of the department's resources.

4. The fourth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the War, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the various activities of the department during the year. The report discusses the progress of the various projects that are being undertaken, such as the construction of the new government buildings, and the development of the public lands. It also discusses the various measures that have been taken to improve the management of the department's resources.

5. The fifth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Navy, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the various activities of the department during the year. The report discusses the progress of the various projects that are being undertaken, such as the construction of the new government buildings, and the development of the public lands. It also discusses the various measures that have been taken to improve the management of the department's resources.
