GCC RELEASE OF INFORMATION AGREEMENT

In an effort to meet the needs of Participants, it is sometimes necessary for the GOOD Call Connections (GCC) to contact and share information with other community services or agencies. This may include disclosure of personal or confidential information. Sharing this information is intended to assist Participants of the GCC Program only.

Program Requirements:

Moore County residents aged 50 or older may apply to be a Participant in the GCC Program. Each Participant must apply on his or her own behalf.

A Participant must provide accurate information on the opposite side of this sheet and promptly provide the GCC Program with any changes, as they may occur.

Participants agree to receive phone calls from a representative of the GCC Program for a friendly chat. This service provides brief informal conversations to encourage older adults to stay socially connected and engaged.

Program Disclaimers:

Participant agrees the Program and its volunteers may rely on the statements of Participant, Contact Person, or any person who answers Participant's or Contact Person's telephone. The Program has no responsibility to take further action if the call is unanswered. A Participant may disenroll from the Program at any time by calling the GCC at (910) 947-4483.

Program Limitations:

This is not a welfare check program.

Contact Person:

A Participant will list 1-Contact Person such as a family member, friend or neighbor to serve as a contact point in the event we cannot connect with the Participant after several tries.
