Greetings,

I speak with people every day who seek guidance in navigating the world of older adults. I understand how new the terminology can be, and how confusing the services may seem. The Moore County Department of Aging has assembled this resource guide for older adults and those who assist them. It provides an introduction to the services available for older adults, defines the common terms, and provides an index of places to contact for more information.

We have worked hard to include a comprehensive listing of resources and services that will interest senior citizens and their families, within the constraints of our time and resources. However, we do not claim that this guide is all-inclusive regarding services for older adults, nor that it is free of errors. Inclusion in this directory does not constitute an endorsement or recommendation by the Department of Aging, nor does exclusion imply a negative evaluation. The Department of Aging reserves the right to select the organizations to be included in this directory, based on our mission and space limitation.

Special thanks to Dawn Gartman and Sue Leary for their diligence and dedication in seeing this project through. We hope you will find it helpful. Please contact us with questions or for additional copies of this guide. Also, please notify us of any changes, additions or deletions to the content of this directory.

GLOSSARY

Activities of Daily Living (ADL)
A term used to describe basic self-care tasks that are a part of most people's regular day, such as bathing, dressing, grooming, moving around the house, and eating. ADLs are widely used to assess individual functioning status.

Adult Care Homes
An assisted living residence in which the housing management provides 24-hour scheduled and unscheduled personal care services to two or more residents, either directly or, for scheduled needs, through formal written agreement with licensed home care or hospice agencies. Some licensed adult care homes provide supervision to persons with cognitive impairments whose decisions, if made independently, may jeopardize the safety or well-being of themselves or others and therefore require supervision. Medication in an adult care home may be administered by designated, trained staff. Adult care homes that provide care to two to six unrelated residents are commonly called family care homes. Adult care homes and family care homes are subject to licensure by the Division of Facility Services.

Alzheimer’s Disease
A progressive, degenerative disease that attacks the brain and results in impaired memory, thinking, and behavior.

Assessment
Activities performed by at least one professional (preferably a social worker and/or a nurse) to determine a person's current functional abilities and resources in six areas: physical health, mental health, social support, activities of daily living, environmental conditions, and financial situation. Assessment includes a home visit by a professional. Once the assessment is completed, activities related to developing and implementing a client service plan becomes part of case management.

Assisted Living
"Assisted living residence" means any group housing and services program for two or more unrelated adults, by whatever name it is called, that makes available, at a minimum, one meal a day and housekeeping services and provides personal care services directly or through a formal written agreement with one or more licensed home care or hospice agencies. Settings in which services are delivered may include self-contained apartment units or single or shared room units with private or area baths.
Cognitive Impairment
A term that refers to damage or loss of intellectual or mental functioning. The act or process of "knowing", including awareness or judgment, is impaired. Alzheimer's disease is the most common cause of cognitive impairment among older adults.

Congregate Living
A living arrangement in which two or more unrelated individuals reside in a house or apartment.

Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC)
A facility that offers a continuum of care—from independent living, assisted-living, or rest home care, to nursing home care. Individuals are offered an independent living lifestyle with the security of knowing supportive and health care services are available if needed.

Durable Power of Attorney
A legal document that allows you to appoint someone as your agent to manage your affairs should you be incompetent or incapacitated.

Elder Abuse
An umbrella term used to describe one or more of the following:
- Physical abuse is the willful infliction of physical pain or injury, e.g., slapping, bruising, sexually molesting, or restraining.
- Sexual abuse is the infliction of non-consensual sexual contact of any kind.
- Emotional or psychological abuse is the infliction of mental or emotional anguish, e.g., humiliating, intimidating, or threatening.
- Financial or material exploitation is the improper act or process of an individual, using the resources of an older person, without his/her consent, for someone else's benefit.
- Neglect is the failure of a caretaker to provide goods or services necessary to avoid physical harm, mental anguish or mental illness, e.g., abandonment, denial of food or health related services.
- Self-neglect is characterized as the behavior of an elderly person that threatens his/her own health or safety

Family Caregiver Support Program (FCSP)
The Older Americans Act Amendments of 2000 established the National Family Caregiver Support Program to assist the aging network to develop a multi-faceted system of supports for caregivers. The Division of Aging and Adult Services and Area Agencies on Aging are administering the program in North Carolina.
Family Care Home

"Family care home" means an adult care home having two to six residents. The structure of a family care home may be no more than two stories high and none of the aged or physically disabled persons being served there may be housed in the upper story without provision for two direct exterior ground-level accesses to the upper story. It is licensed by the Division of Facility Services.

FL-2

Long-Term Services prior approval form which gives a summary of the patient's medical requirements and which reflect the attending physician's recommendation for the level of care needed in an institutional setting. An approved FL-2 is required for any Medicaid recipient in a skilled nursing facility (SNF) or an intermediate care facility (ICF). An FL-2 must also be completed by the attending physician prior to admission to an adult care home and at least annually thereafter.

Food Stamps

A federal program that provides a monthly allotment of Food Stamp benefits issued via Electronic Benefit Transfer cards (ATM cards). The Food Stamp Program is an entitlement program, so all eligible individuals and households can receive assistance. Food Stamp benefits may be used to purchase most foods at participating stores. They may not be used to purchase tobacco, pet food, paper products, soap products, or alcoholic beverages. Administrative costs are 50% federal and 50% county. The stamps are 100% federal.

Foster Care Services for Adults

A service that involves recruiting, developing, and evaluating adult care homes to determine if they meet the needs of residents and to help them improve upon their service. All county DSS's that have an adult care home in their county provide this service.

Guardianship

The legal authority and duty given by the court to a person (guardian) for the purpose of assuming responsibility for the care and maintenance of another person (ward), who has been determined incapable of handling his/her own personal affairs. The powers and authority conferred upon a guardian depend on what type of guardianship is granted by the court.

- Guardian of the Estate - Is responsible for collecting, preserving, and administering the property and income of the ward.
- Guardian of the Person - Is entitled to custody of the ward and is responsible for the ward's care, comfort and maintenance. The guardian makes decisions such as where the ward will live, gives consent for medical or professional treatment of/for the ward. The Guardian of the Person is responsible for the basic physical care of the ward and his/her immediate personal effects.
- General Guardian - Performs the duties of both the Guardian of the Estate and Guardian of the Person.
Health Care Power of Attorney

Allows you to appoint someone to act as your health care agent to make health care decisions for you should it be determined by your physician that you are no longer able to make these decisions for yourself.

Home-Delivered Meals

A nutrition program that utilizes volunteers to deliver at least one hot nutritious meal per day (usually 5 days a week) to homebound adults. The meal offers one-third of the Recommended Daily Dietary Allowance.

Home Health Services

Health care prescribed by a physician and given in the home to a person in need of medical care. Services may include skilled nursing services, therapy services (physical therapy, occupational therapy and speech therapy), medical social services, health promotion services, and home health aide services. This is a covered service under Medicaid.

Hospice Care

A service provided for terminally ill patients and their families. A hospice agency provides medical, nursing, and supportive services to meet the needs of families and patients in the last six months of the patient's life.

In-Home Aide Services

The in-home aide services previously known as Chore, Homemaker, Homemaker-Home Health Aide, Respite, and Personal Care Services have been incorporated into a single service entitled, "In-Home Aide Services". These are paraprofessional services that assist children and adults, their families, or both, with essential home management tasks, personal care tasks, supervision, or all of the above. Their purpose is to allow these individuals to function effectively in their own homes and the community for as long as possible. The four levels of care are:

- HOME MANAGEMENT
  Level I: In-Home Aide Services at this level are intended to provide support to those needing assistance with basic home management tasks, such as housekeeping, cooking, shopping, and bill paying. Personal care tasks may not be performed at this level.

- PERSONAL CARE
  Level II: In-Home Aide Services at this level are intended to provide support to persons/families who predominantly require assistance with basic personal care (bathing, shaving, toileting, and personal hygiene), and associated home management tasks.

- HOME MANAGEMENT
  Level III: In-Home Aide Services at this level are intended to provide intensive education and support to persons/families in carrying out home management tasks and improving family functioning skills.
• PERSONAL CARE
  Level III: In-Home Aide Services at this level are intended to provide substantial activities of daily living (ADL) support to individuals/families who require assistance with health and personal care tasks. Provision of these tasks involves extensive "hands-on" care and potential assistance with a wide range of health related conditions.

• HOME MANAGEMENT
  Level IV: In-Home Aide Services at this level are intended to provide a wide range of educational and supportive services to persons/families who are in crisis or who require long term assistance with complex home management tasks and family functioning skills. Provision of the service involves quick and creative response to individual/family crisis situations identified by the case manager. It also may focus on conducting appropriate learning sessions with small groups of persons from different families who have similar needs.

Instrumental Activities of Daily Living (IADL)
Basic tasks that are essential to living independently, such as cooking meals, housekeeping, laundry, paying bills, shopping, and using the telephone.

Living Will
A legal document in which you can declare your desire that under certain conditions your life not be prolonged by extraordinary or artificial means. Advice and assistance with such matters for people unable to afford the services of a private attorney may be available through a Legal Aid office.

Long Term Care Insurance
A type of insurance designed to pay some or all of the costs of nursing home, assisted living, community, or home health care. The Seniors' Health Insurance Information Program provides useful information on this kind of insurance, including a fact sheet. SHIIP and the Division of Aging and Adult Services have developed a Consumer Bill of Rights for Buyers of Long Term Care Insurance.

Long Term Care Ombudsman
A professional who serves as an advocate for long-term care residents of nursing homes and adult care homes. Advocacy includes educating individuals about their rights and complex rules or regulations governing the long term care system. An Ombudsman can be requested to investigate concerns and serve as a mediator for conflict resolution should a resident encounter difficulty exercising rights.

Ombudsmen are available to:
- Serve as a resource for anyone who has questions about long term care regulations;
- Be involved in the care planning process or family meetings;
- Provide training to staff, resident councils, or family councils;
- Provide information and referral;
- Provide state survey results on local facilities; and
• Talk about any situation that may arise from being a resident, family member, or staff person of a facility.

The Long Term Care Ombudsman program is federally mandated through the Older Americans Act. There is at least one Ombudsman for each of the 17 aging regions in North Carolina. Each county also has local Community Advisory Committees. These are volunteers who are appointed by the county commissioners to serve as grass roots advocates for residents in the facilities.

Medicaid (TITLE XIX of the Social Security Act)
A Federal-funded and State-funded health care program for eligible persons. To be eligible a person must meet income and assets limits, and be aged, blind, disabled, a member of a family with dependent children, or a pregnant woman. Some people are covered by both Medicare and Medicaid. Administered by the Division of Medical Assistance in the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, the program provides medical care for qualifying recipients. Applications for Medicaid are made through the County Department of Social Services.

Medicare
A federal health insurance program for persons aged 65 and over who are eligible for Social Security or Railroad Retirement benefits and for some people who are disabled regardless of age. There are two parts: Part A is hospital insurance which is automatic, for those eligible, and Part B covers the physician and other services. Part B is voluntary and requires a monthly premium.

Occupational Therapist (OT)
Occupational therapists assist in rehabilitation through the design and implementation of individualized programs to improve or restore functions impaired by illness or injury.

Older Americans Act (OAA)
Federal legislation established in 1965 providing broad policy objectives designed to meet the needs of older persons. The key philosophy of the program has been to help maintain and support older persons in their homes and communities and to avoid unnecessary or premature institutionalization.

Ombudsman
A representative of a public agency or a nonprofit organization who investigates and resolves complaints made by or on the behalf of older individuals who are residents of long-term care facilities. In North Carolina the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman is located in the Division of Aging and Adult Services of the Department of Health and Human Services. There are Regional Ombudsmen across the state who are located within the Area Agency on Aging, a part of the regional council of government.

Personal Care Services (PCS)
Paraprofessional care (comparable to In-Home Aide Services, Personal Care Levels II and III) covered by Medicaid for eligible persons.
Respite
Provides needed relief to primary caregivers of individuals who cannot be left alone because of mental or physical problems.

Senior Health Insurance Information Program (SHIIP)
Sponsored by the N. C. Department of Insurance. Volunteers assist with information about all types of Medicare and related insurance issues, including long-term care insurance and Medicare Part D.

Skilled Nursing Facility (SNF)
A nursing home that provides 24 hour-a-day nursing services for a person who has serious health care needs but does not require the intense level of care provided in a hospital. Rehabilitation services may also be provided. Many of these facilities are federally certified, which means they may participate in Medicaid or Medicare programs.

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
A federal program that pays monthly checks to people in need who are 65 years or older and to people in need at any age who are blind and disabled. The purpose of the program is to provide sufficient resources so that anyone who is 65, or blind, or disabled can have a basic monthly income. Eligibility is based on income and assets. SSI is administered nationally and locally by the Social Security Administration.

Support Groups
Usually made up of caregivers, family members, and friends of a person experiencing an illness such as Alzheimer's disease, cancer, Parkinson's, etc. People are brought together by a common concern, situation, or experience. A professional usually facilitates group discussion and sharing of experiences and feelings. Educational programs are also common among support groups.

TTY
Telecommunications device for persons who are deaf or hard of hearing (TDD): A device similar to a computer keyboard, either with a cradle to rest a telephone hand set on or connected directly to the telephone. A TDD allows the user to communicate by typing messages on the keyboard and receiving message on the screen about the keyboard. The teletext devise typewriter is usually referred to as a TTY by members of the deaf and hard of hearing community.

Alzheimer’s Disease and Related Dementias

Dementia is not a specific disease but a cluster of symptoms that include changes in memory, thinking, and reasoning. Being told you or a loved one has a form of dementia can result in many different emotions. People report having some or all of the following feelings:

- Anger … because you don’t have control over your future.
- Sadness/depression … feeling sad or hopeless because your life is changing.
- Fear … of the future and how you and your loved ones might be affected.
- Resentment … wondering what I did to deserve this diagnosis.
- Sense of loss … as abilities change.
- Denial … I can’t believe this is happening.
- Relief … to finally know what may be causing the changes you are experiencing.
- Isolation … losing interest in maintaining relationships because others don’t seem to understand.

Denial, numbness, and detachment are often people’s first reactions as they try to get their heads and hearts to cope with this most unwanted and unexpected diagnosis. Having a place to express these feelings and to learn healthy ways of coping is crucial to moving forward and living a high quality of life.

Moore County is addressing the issue of Alzheimer’s disease and related dementias on several levels. First, through a variety of educational/support groups and programs that include:

- Groups for individuals who are newly diagnosed
- Groups for care partners
- Groups for adult children
- Programs for children

Secondly, public education is being provided through lectures, series, and community speakers. Lastly, the community is identifying services that are needed for people with dementia, their care partners and their families.
