Task Force/Committee Updates

The Utilities Task Force

(Commissioners Daeke and Ritter) met on January 20th to discuss several issues for which County staff requested input and direction, including a development fee rate study request for qualifications (RFQ), a Vass sewer RFQ, water in the Murdocksville area, electronic waste, and well abandonments.

The Budget Task Force

(Commissioners Picerno and Saunders) met with staff assembled as the fiscal year 2017 budget team on January 20th and covered issues regarding property tax rates, sales tax, capital funding, and nonprofit funding.

The Courthouse Facilities Advisory Committee

met in the court facility on January 27th to assess what has been accomplished through recent facility renovations, and what deficiencies still exist. Commissioner Graham chairs the Committee and Commissioner Daeke is also one of the 16 members. A report will be made to the Board of Commissioners on February 16th.

Retirees Honored

Recent Sheriff's Office retirees Major Ricky Whitaker, Lieutenant Cathy Williams, and Lieutenant Victor Moore were honored by the Board of Commissioners with resolutions during the January 5th regular meeting. A reception for them was hosted by the Sheriff's Office in December.

Also recognized was Public Safety employee Wilda Hussey, who retired with 30 years of service in the E-911 communications center. Wilda received the Cardinal Award from the Office of the Governor.

Congratulations to these outstanding public servants!

Accolades for Website Work

At the January 5th meeting, the Board recognized County staff and volunteers who contributed to the design and launch of the County's new website. Receiving special recognition was Vondia Smith, eBusiness Specialist in the Information Technology Department, and especially special recognition went to IT intern Preston Robinson, a UNC student who spearheaded the project and saw it to completion at no cost to the County. The Board also acknowledged IT Director Chris Butts for his excellent leadership. Check out the new website: www.moorecountync.gov.

Winter Summit

The Winter Summit held by the Board on January 7th was very well-attended and full of productive discussion on economic development, citizen services, elections, facilities, legislation, and budget/finance. Special guests included Sen. Jerry Tillman, Rep. Jamie Boles, and representatives from the NC Association of County Commissioners. Board of Elections Director Glenda Clendenin and staff graciously catered breakfast and lunch ensuring all present were well fueled for the day. (Thanks, Glenda)!!!
