Transportation Projects Workshop Scheduled

The Triangle Area Rural Planning Organization (TARPO) has organized a series of public workshops to share information on the prioritization of transportation projects for funding, and to gather input from citizens. These meetings will be conducted as drop-in workshops, with staff on hand to explain the process, answer questions, and take comments from the public. A workshop will be held in Moore County on Monday, May 16th from 6:00-7:30p.m. at the Moore County Ag. Center, 707 Pinehurst Ave., Carthage. TARPO conducts rural transportation planning for Chatham, Lee, Moore, and Orange Counties and advises NCDOT on rural transportation policies and programs. For more information, contact Matt Day, TARPO Secretary, at 919-558-9397 or mday@tjcog.org.

Facilities Work Session

The commissioners held a facilities work session on Thursday, April 14th at the Rick Rhyne Public Safety Center. Staff informed the Board of a number of facilities issues facing the County and received guidance for moving forward.

Volunteers Recognized

The 2016 Governor's Volunteer Service Award recipients from Moore County were recognized by the Board during the April 19th regular meeting. Receiving awards were: Cos Barnes (Southern Pines Public Library), Mary Cunningham (Habitat for Humanity), Kitty Fehr (Senior Enrichment Center), Janet Gillis (Coalition for Human Care), Marilyn Otto (Habitat for Humanity), Marilyn Powers (Literacy Council), Sarah Ross (FirstHealth Moore Regional), Irene Sauter (CVB), and Joan and Richard Wolstenholme (Habitat for Humanity). Chairman Picerno, a lifelong Moore County resident, said during the presentation that he had never wanted to leave Moore County, and the reason was people like these who give back and continually strive to make Moore County a better place to live.
