Honoring Gurney Williams

Ralph Williams accepting resolution from Chairman Quis

Children of Gurney Williams

The commissioners honored lifelong County resident Gurney Williams for his 107th birthday during their August 4 meeting. Mr. Williams was not present as he moved from his home in Robbins to Autumn Care in Biscoe when he was 105, but many of his large family, including seven of his eight children were present to accept a resolution adopted in recognition of their dad. Click HERE to read the resolution. Sadly, Mr. Williams passed away just a few days later, on August 13.
