Attendees Support Area I School Funding

A crowd of over 120 citizens attended the commissioners' November 7 regular meeting in support of the County entering into a financing agreement for a new Area I K-5 elementary school. A public hearing was held pursuant to requirements set forth in the North Carolina General Statutes. No further action was taken that evening, but a record of the hearing was filed for the Local Government Commission, and the commissioners are anticipated to award a direct bank loan bid during their December regular meeting.

Facilities Task Force Receives Guidance

The Facilities Task Force (Commissioners Graham and Daeke) were joined by Judge Marion Warren, Director of the North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts, during a meeting on November 9. Judge Warren advised the commissioners regarding perspectives from the Administration on considerations in design of a new court facility, particularly with regard to the impacts of technology. District Attorney Maureen Krueger and Clerk of Superior Court Susan Hicks also attended the meeting along with several County staff members.

Judge Warren recommended a tour of the new Catawba County courthouse, which will be organized for members of the Courthouse Facilities Advisory Committee after the holidays.
