In the Matter of:

North Carolina NAACP, et al
vs
North Carolina State Board, et al

IN ACCORDANCE with the Memorandum Opinion of the Honorable Loretta C. Biggs, District Judge for the United States Middle District Court in North Carolina and as directed by Kim Westbrook Strach, Executive Director of the State Board of Elections, the Moore County Board of Elections has restored the status of the previously removed voters due to a Sustained Challenge.

This involved 374 who were removed as a result of the full Hearing on Notice of Challenge conducted on October 14, 2016. There were no other Challenge Hearings conducted in Moore County for the period of August 9th to this date of November 5th.

A report of those voters is attached and includes their current status.

Glenda M. Clendenin, Director
Moore County Board of Elections
