Moore County Health Department Announces
Moore Healthy Dining Program Awards

Two local restaurants have received Moore County Healthy Dining Program Diamond A awards from the Moore County Board of Health. The Diamond A award recognizes restaurants and food service establishments that provide clean and safe environments and offer healthy food choices to their patrons.

Chef Warren's and Lady Bedford's Tea Parlour & Gift Shoppe each received a Diamond A award plaque during a special presentation held at the Board of Health meeting on December 1st. The criteria for the award are: earn a 97% or higher unadjusted sanitation grade for the past year, allow no smoking on the premises and offer clearly marked healthy menu items.

In addition, 12 restaurants and food service establishments received Moore Healthy Dining Platinum A awards for having a 97% unadjusted sanitation grade for one year and providing a smoke-free environment. Golden A awards were also awarded to 52 restaurants and food service establishments for having a 97% unadjusted sanitation grade for one year.

An unadjusted sanitation score is a score which does not include the two extra points for completing a Serve-Safe food handling course.

The Moore Healthy Dining Program was established in July, 2008. "The program is designed to encourage Food Service Managers to exceed standards and expectations regarding food safety", stated Scott Bullard, Board of Health Chairperson. "Food safety is an important part of the County Health Department's effort to protect the public".

For the third year in a row Chef Warren's and Lady Bedford's Tea Parlour & Gift Shoppe have received Diamond A awards."
