EXTERNAL CHECKLIST FOR BONA FIDE FARM DETERMINATION

- Completed application.
- Documentation that shows the property is enrolled in or participates in one of the following programs as required by N.C.G.S 160D-903:
  - A. A farm sales tax exemption certificate issued by the Department of Revenue.
  - B. A copy of the property tax listing showing that the property is eligible for participation in the present use value program pursuant to G.S. 105-277.3.
  - C. A copy of the farm owner's or operator's Schedule F from the owner's or operator's most recent federal income tax return.
  - D. A forest management plan.
- An improvement permit or septic recertification from Environmental Health Department depending on the project.
- A completed site plan. The purpose is to clearly identify where the proposed and existing structure(s)/ building(s) are/ will be located on the property, the structure(s)/buildings distances measured to all property lines, and location of the existing septic system, septic lines or septic repair area.
- A diagram displaying the footprint and dimensions of the structure(s) clearly stating the use for each room.
- One set of building plans, where applicable.
- A recorded deed to verify ownership.
- Depending on the project, additional permits may be required from :
  - ⇒ Buildings and Inspections (The North Carolina Building Code may exempt agricultural buildings from the standards for construction of the building but any electrical, plumbing or mechanical work will require the issuance of additional permits. Buildings used by the public require a building permit.)
  - ⇒ Fire Marshal
  - ⇒ North Carolina Department of Transportation
  - ⇒ Army Corp of Engineers (if there are any wetlands on the property)
  - ⇒ Floodplain Manager ( if property is in the flood zone)
  - ⇒ US Fish and Wildlife Service ( if property falls within an inactive or active Red-cockaded woodpecker cluster).

The following is a list of uses that may be classified as bona fide farm exempt. This list is not all inclusive and additional items can qualify for the exemption.

- Barns
